

Erin Holzman is our new middle school teacher. She completed the AMI Montessori Training for Adolescent Studies in Ohio this summer. Erin has worked at Children's House since 2014. She has spent almost 15 years working in the field of education in various forms, including teaching middle and high school Humanities (combination classes in English & Social Studies), K-12 Arts, University Art & Art History, and substituting at all levels. She has a background in Montessori as well as College Preparatory programming, with a focus in student centered learning. Erin graduated from Brandies University with 2 BA's, one in Art History and the other in English & American Literature. She received her MFA in Visual Arts from Miami University of Art & Design, and is eligible for Florida State Teaching Certification in Humanities for K-12.