

Princess Koletsky is a teacher in our Lower Elementary program. Princess completed A.M.I. certification as an elementary teacher at the Montessori Institute of North Texas in 2010. She joined Children's House in 2005 as an assistant in our upper elementary classroom for four years while pursuing her Montessori training. She holds a B.S. degree in Marketing and Management and has extensive experience in financial arenas. She and her husband, Barry, have one son, Zachary and make their home in Glenwood.